256 pages, paperback, 40 photographs, bibliographic notes
$23.95 (Can)

This compelling collection of stories chronicles intriguing aviation anomalies from the shores of Labrador to the British Columbia coast, and beyond our aerial borders to describe Canadian participation in bringing resolution to more far-reaching aviation mysteries and disasters.

Without exception, the stories are offered in a spirit of respect and reverence for the many lost souls of the flying fraternity.

Available at book stores, or you may order your personalized copy from the Aero Space Museum's AeroWorks Gift Shop with this form:
